RABBI ATTACKS CROKER.

Richard Croker looked hale and hearty yesterday and very little disturbed outwardly by the "night of shame" remarks. Rabbi Stephen S.
Wise at the dinner of the Ethical Social League in New York Tuesday night said Monday night was a night of shame for New York city. "It was a night of shame for the 12 Supreme Court justices and for Mr. Jerome, who disgraced themselves and dishonored the city by joining in a tribute to the successor of the boisterous Tweed and to the predecessors of the unrepentable Murphy. I am sorry for these Supreme Court justices and for Mr. Jerome, for I do not believe that they wanted to go to that dinner, but it must be remembered that they lacked the courage to stay away. This gathering in honor of Croker indicates that the forces of the tiger are making ready to fasten their clutches again upon New York. These men have the foresight to get together 11 months before the next election. Why, then, should not the ethical forces of the city unite just as soon to save the community from another term of misery and misrule?"To these words Mr. Croker replied: "The papers can say for me that I don't want to get into any controversy with such a narrow man as Rabbi Wise —a narrow old man, who begrudges me be welcome of my friends."
"I see that he calls me the successor of Tweed. Yes, I did succeed Tweed.
Some one had to. He was driven out of power with my help. So I succeeded to the leadership.""Did I ever stand for Tweed? No, sir; I was against him and I was glad to be able to help to bring him down. And I say to this republican-socialist rabbi here must have been incompetent prosecutors in New York city if I am fit to be put in the same boat with Tweed."

It is a wonder.

Chamberlain's Liniment is one of the most remarkable preparations yet produced for the relief of rheumatic pains, and for lame back, sprains and bruises.
The quick relief from pain which it affords in case of rheumatism is alone worth many times its cost. Price, 25c; large size 50c. For sale by W. F.

The negro brass band connected with the traveling troupe was blating a tune in its characteristic slap bang style in front of the theater when a dusky cornet player who had been sulking all day suddenly quit blowing and did not resume."Say, Mose," demanded the leader in the ensuing pause, "ain't yo' workin' any mo'?""Ah is w'en Ah gits de inspiration," retorted the sulky musician, throwing the whites of his eyes across at the leader.

"W'en am dat?"

"W'en Ah gits mah las' week's pay."

"Mr. Giffard," asked the caller, "are you carrying all the life insurance you can afford?""No," answered the man at the desk.
"I can afford more, and I had expected to take out more, but from a note I got from my employer this morning I have begun to suspect that I am carrying a good deal more than I am worth."—
